

The automated system of the internal and external irradiation doses control and the stay control of the s

The ultimate goal of KhNPP automated radiation monitoring system development was to develop the system, which had to comply ALARA principle, national radiation safety rules, NNEGC Energoatom regulations and NPP security rules.

So, the project included:

- research and development work in development of the radiation monitoring system consumption;
- development and implementation of the system software and hardware.

